

For immediate release:

ALLEGIANCE CAPITAL'S JEFF FLICK NAMED TO TULSA'S 40 UNDER 40

Dallas – June 7, 2011 . The Tulsa Business Journal has named Allegiance Capital Vice President Jeff Flick to Tulsa's 40 Under 40 list, the business-to-business newspaper's annual effort to recognize outstanding up-and-coming professionals in the Tulsa metropolitan area.

"I am honored to be in such good company," said Flick, who joined Allegiance Capital in February 2011 as part of Infinity Financial Group. "I look forward to contributing to Tulsa's thriving business community as an M&A advisor to middle market business owners and as an entrepreneur myself."

Tulsa's 40 Under 40 will be recognized today at a luncheon from noon to 1:30 p.m. at the Hyatt Regency Tulsa hotel, downtown at 100 E. Second Street. Additionally, TBJ will profile the honorees in a special issue published this week.

"We couldn't be more thrilled with this year's diverse class of honorees," said Chuck Branch, TBJ publisher. "Their generation is the city's future leadership, and, judging from this year's crop of honorees, I'd say Tulsa's future is in good hands."

A U.S. Marine and a graduate of the University of Oklahoma's Price School of Business, Flick has amassed M&A experience within the oil and gas industry, including midstream energy services, pipeline construction, and oil and gas services, and manufacturing. In his current role, he assists business owners of privately held companies with every aspect of financing and selling a business.

Allegiance Capital is an investment bank with offices nationwide and a 13-year history of closing transactions for private companies in the middle market. Business owners considering their options related to an exit, selling a business or recapitalization, can obtain information about the process from Allegiance Capital by calling 214-217-7750.

###

Media Contact:

Katherine Kirkpatrick
Vice President, Allegiance Capital
214-217-7745
kkirkpatrick@allcapcorp.com